There is a story gaining some traction on social media about Rowan banning its athletes from wearing sports bras. It reads and feels like fake news, but people are anxious about it. I am investigating it with the Athletics Department anyway. I will update this group as soon as I have info.

Thanks for your patience.

Hi, all.

Now that I finally have my ducks in a row, I wanted to get everyone on the same thread. Amanda & Charissa will be everyone's points of contact for all-things social while I am out. Any emergencies/crises should be directed to Joe Cardona.
